Members will play a vital role in capitalizing our start up costs and will play an equally important role in allowing us to meet our members desire for fresh, local and organic foods.*

To become an Owner of the Port Orford CommUnity Co-op (POCC), please fill out this form and bring it by the store with your membership fee payment or mail both to POCC, PO Box 404, Port Orford, OR 97465.

The membership fee is $100. There are two payment options:

1. Payment in full.
2. Installment payments. Consecutive monthly payments of $25. Discounts and other benefits for Owners will begin immediately and will continue as long as you choose to maintain your membership.

Household members authorized to make purchases at Co-op on Member's account:

By signing below, I confirm that I have received, read, understand and agree to the Port Orford CommUnity Co-op Bylaws, I will pay the balance of my membership fee and annual renewals (if applicable) when due, and that I will notify the Co-op within 30 days of changes to my contact information.

Signature _____

☐ Sign me up to receive updates from the POCC.

I want to volunteer my skills and time to my Co-op. ☐ YES ☐ NO

*NOTE: Upon acceptance, a member of the Co-op is an owner of the Co-op. The legal term for the owner's status in Oregon Revised Statutes ("ORS") is "member." And ORS requires payment of a membership fee for membership. The Co-op prefers the term "Owner" for its members, but it uses the term "membership fee" to refer to the fee which the person must pay to become an Owner.
